The 2nd Annual Rochester Global Health Symposium and UNYTE Scientific Session

Innovative Solutions to Combat Global Health Disparities

Participate from anywhere!
The Global and Territorial Health Research Network and the UNYTE Translational Research Network present

This year’s symposium brings together leaders in global health research from Upstate New York and around the world to promote research collaboration, provide networking opportunities and help new researchers begin a career in global health. Students, trainees, junior faculty and senior faculty are all invited!

The one-day event includes timely presentations on global health issues, a poster session, a student poster competition, and breakout sessions. Multiple networking opportunities will give participants a chance to share ideas one-on-one and connect with experts in the field.

Featured speakers

Global Health Policy, Neal Palafox MD, MPH, University of Hawaii
Global Cancer Prevention and Control, Jennifer S. Smith PhD, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
Zika Virus and Health Diplomacy/Health Protection, Mehran Massoudi PhD MPH CAPT, USPHS, Director, Prevention Research Centers Program
Mobilizing Food Systems for Improved Health and Nutrition, Per Pinstrup-Andersen PhD, Cornell University
Global Health and Technology: New Solutions for Development, Saurabh Mehta PhD, Cornell University
